

Intervention

Write a change plan as a key document that guides you throughout the phases.

Change Phase

PREPARATION

Description

Use the results of the planning phase and the analysis of the change field to write a plan that contains all the steps and interventions to take. Get a commitment for your plan from the key stakeholders and change sponsors. Position this plan as the document that will guide you throughout the change phases.